

Flow “Correction Factors” Water/Glycol Mixtures

The graph indicates values of the specific gravity for specified percentage mixtures and operating temperatures

Method of Use

- Select the curve appropriate for the known percentage glycol/water mixture
- Identify the point on this curve corresponding to the system temperature during balancing
- Draw a horizontal line from this point to intersect the specific gravity scale.